Dog attack investigation – update

A Bailiwick Law Enforcement spokesman said: “A full police investigation into the circumstances that lead to the dog attack and the use of force was completed, and then as per procedure in all cases, the matter was referred to the Law Officers. The decision by them was that no further action would be taken against the owner. The Law Officers were also supportive of the appropriate action taken by Guernsey Police at the scene in Ruelle de la Tour, Castel.”
